

Quarterly Report #6: August 2022

Presented by the Cosmic Citizens Committee of Now Creations

***

The intention of the CCC is to provide Now Creations members with education related to this important and ever-emerging topic. It is in that spirit that this information is provided.

***

Dear Members of Now Creations,

The Cosmic Citizens Committee is happy to share this report by Doug Davis. This report is not an official position of Now Creations, but reflects the work of one of our committee members.

Please feel free to contact Doug Davis for additional information.

Namaste,
Vince

The Star Children written & compiled by Doug Davis

The Star Children have been arriving here from all over the Universe to help the Earth and humanity, and to shift the paradigm from an old energy to a new energy of love, compassion, peace, community, and acceptance of all individuals for who they are. The 3 main types of Star Children are the Indigo, Crystal, and Rainbow children. They are on 'special assignment' to assist in the rebirth of planet Earth. It is vitally important that we adults take good care of these children as well as respect them for the highly evolved beings they are. There has never been a better time to say "Namaste" to our children and really mean it. While we, as members of Now Creations, are also joyfully raising the consciousness of humanity and shifting the paradigm, it took us (and many older adults) much longer to reach the spiritual understanding we now possess, whereas these new kids come in already 'wired' and ready to go with this greater understanding!

The Indigo Children-- They are called "Indigo" children because it was noticed that these children, who began coming in during the 1960's, had indigo auras. They continued coming in during the 70's, 80's and 90's. Overall, the traits of the Indigos are as follows (it is important to note that not every single trait applies to every child): they are very intelligent, very empathetic, and highly intuitive. They are likewise very creative and love to spend time in solitude in their seeming imaginary worlds (their worlds might be imaginary to their parents, but very real to them, such as thinking about the dimension or planet they came from). They also like to retreat from all the negativity in the world. Some are quiet and can seem aloof. They may remember their past lives and confound and surprise their parents with this. Some can be rebellious and have problems with strict rules and governments; they have a mind of their own. They intuitively know that the education system is obsolete. It is entrenched in the old energy. These kids know there is a new reality forming. They come in already 'wired' for technology. Sometimes they are very aware of their mission and determined to carry it out; other times they may feel totally worthless, as though they have no purpose at all. Sometimes they suffer from mental illness or addiction. You cannot lie to them; if you do, they know it and will call you on it.

The Crystal Children-- The Crystal children are more evolved than the Indigos. They were born beginning in the 1990's. There was some overlap in the 90's with the Indigos. The Crystallines came to lead us back to living in peace & harmony, and to teach us to live in unity. They are very forgiving; also, sensitive, warm, & caring. They can have gifts of clairvoyance and healing. They love nature and are extremely emotional and sensitive when, for example, a tree is cut down or otherwise destroyed. They have a calming presence, and they do not do well in a busy environment. They have the ability of telepathic communication and, in many cases, communicate telepathically with their parents before they are born. They want to teach us to see the creation of miracles as normal, to honor the planet and ourselves, to live in the present moment, and to show us how to live from our hearts, to forgive, and be tolerant. They are empathic and feel the pain of others. From "The Children of Now" by Meg Blackburn Losey: "The Crystalline children create an energy shift as they are born. I know one midwife who has actually seen light appear in the room as these babies are born. Crystalline babies generally are very calm and alert. Their eyes seem to carry the wisdom of the ages. These babies at once feel powerful and peaceful to the observer. They are extremely 'present.' Crystalline children generally (but not always) have very, very blue eyes. Some of the crystalline children are born nearly fully realized. They are completely in touch with the etheric worlds beyond this dimension, and have an amazing command of their intuitive, sixth, and even seventh senses. They quickly learn that few others can understand them."

The Rainbow Children-- The Rainbow Children began coming to Earth in 2000 (some overlap with the Crystals). They are born with a huge heart and bring joy and harmony to their families. They are psychic and can read people's feelings. They have a strong connection to colors and love to wear colorful clothing. Rainbows are loving and generous, care for others, can withstand hardships and are very brave, and prefer to be telepathic. They are very creative, have a strong persona, and manifest easily. They express their needs very strongly. They are immune to junk foods and can energetically clean toxins from foods. They are born with NO KARMA! They are of the Heart. These children continue to come in up to the present time and have many of the characteristics of the Crystallines, but with the addition of these traits as noted in this paragraph. Also from Meg Blackburn Losey: "Because a lot of the children are not recognized for who they are, they are either ignored or patronized, and they end up tucking their feelings away deep inside. Their pain then manifests in physical ways, such as unexplained illness, because they have held in more than they can handle."

According to Meg Blackburn Losey in her book, "The Children of Now," the Crystal Children and the Rainbow Children are one in the same, but with this difference: "...the Crystalline energies are extremely vivid in color, while the Rainbow energies are somewhat lighter in intensity, more pastel in color, and more subtle in their movements." Also: "The Crystalline children have great purpose and are willing to clearly tell anyone who listens what that purpose is: to bring unconditional love back to humanity and help instill world peace by bringing the awareness of Oneness back into the collective consciousness." And I love this line in the book from Dr. Losey: "These children have no concept of being different from the Masters and guides who come to them." Dr. Losey categorizes the new children as follows: "Crystalline children, Indigo children, Star kids, Angels on Earth, and the Phenomenon of Transitional Children"

Quotes from some of the Star Children (all quotes below are taken from "The Children of Now" by Meg Blackburn Losey):

"I remember what it was like to be home. It was a lot different than here. Everything was beautiful. I loved everyone and they loved me back equally. How come it doesn't feel like that here?" Andrew, age 4

"Love Moves Me. Love is beautiful, Love is calming, Love is touching as it travels me! On the inside of my body it moves me and I am alive, My being is one." Nicholas, age 4 (in poetry format) (Nicholas, at age 9, wrote the Forward to this book).

"You know Mom, God is not a man or a woman. God is a great big ball of light and when you are born, he takes a little piece of the light and gives it to you." Name & age of child not specified