

July 2026

Thought for the month: I heartily recommend that you see the move, "Disclosure Day".

1. "I want you to know something."
2. What is that?
3. "I went to see that movie your suggested, 'Disclosure Day'."
4. What did you think of it?
5. "Well more than anything it really made me think."
6. "Is it true that our government was hiding things from the public?"
7. That's what many high-ranking government officials have sworn to under oath.
8. "Wow, it really does make you stop and think about such things."
9. Were there any specific things that struck you in the movie.?
10. "Plenty!" What were they?
11. "The first two were the most important for me."
12. "The first one said that you don't have to fear something just because you don't understand it yet."
13. "That made a lot of sense to me."
14. "Most people fear what they do not understand."
15. "The movie encouraged a more 'wait and see' attitude."
16. "And, especially not to fear--this is so important, not to jump to conclusions without knowing."
17. "There's a lot more to understand, and I know that I need to wait and see."
18. "The second thing was I think the highlight of the movie."
19. "It said that 'empathy' is the most important thing in the Universe."
20. "I think by 'empathy' the movie meant 'Loving, Caring'."
21. "I have though a lot about this lately."
22. "You know, Jesus' saying about 'Teach only Love for that is what you are.'"
23. "Whoever we are, we need to be more loving. 'Don't you agree?'"
24. I sure do.
25. Were there any other thoughts that struck you?
26. "Yes, I like the idea that the information belongs to the public."
27. "This made a lot of sense to me."
28. "We need to know what our government knows."
29. "And, we need to make our own decisions as to what they mean."
30. "I'm going to look into this issue more in depth."
31. I think that you are wise to do so.
